The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company desiring to facilitate the transportation of coal by all available means, an i the Alexandria Caad, one of its outlets to the Potomac river beag now and for sometime past, closed by the military ecupancy of the aqueduct at George-town, the necessity for which we hope has now

Resolved, That the President and Directors of the Chesepeake and Ohio Canal Company respectfully request the President of the United States to relieve from military occupation, and carn over to the Alexandria Canal Company, the Petomac aqueduct, which belongs to that company, and is at present the obstacle to the early opening of that canal.

It is understood that when the Board of Onblic Works of Maryland shall have approved the foregoing-of which this is no doubtthe subject will be laid before the authorities in Washington, with a prospect, it is hoped, of having the equeduct restored to the canal company, and one of our main avenue of tonda. so long locked up through the influence of rival cities, again opened. "Hope deferred maketh the heart sick," but we yet trust that right and justice will prevail, and that our canal may, one of these days, be a source of profit and great benefit to Alexandria.

The Directors at the same neeting determined to reduce the freight on coal 18 cents per ton, which it is thought will have a benefeial effect, and greatly increase the trade on the canal.

DISTURBANCE AT THE CIRCUS-ARREST OF TWO NEGRO SOLDIERS -A disturbance occur--ed at the Circus last night, the circumstances connected with which we gathered from the investigation which took place at the trial, before the Mayor, this morning. It appears that, without provocation, a negro soldier, calling himself Speir, struck a negro woman, named Josephine Lomax, on the top of her head with some sharp instrument, inflicting a very severe 70und. Her husband was very much incensed et this outrage, and appealed to the police for satisfaction, who immediately interfered, but were confronted by another negro, calling himself Spaulding, and claiming to be a corporal, and who asserted that none of "his men" should be arrested. This created some disturbance .-At this juncture, however, Mayor Latham, who was present at the exhibition, requested order, which, after some little time, was restored .-He, however, determined to have Speir arrest-26, and for that purpose sent a messeager to the Watch House for assistance, which arriving in a very short time, when the "Corporal" called on his men to leave, the Mayor ordered the arrest of Spier. The "Corporal" interposed, but the Mayor himself interfered, disarmed Spaulding of a large billy, &c., and secured the crrest of both. Speir called lustily on the other regro soldiers to "rally," but they refused to espond, and, at the request of the Mayor, went on peaceably. The offending parties were the hen to the Watch House, where they were locked ap, and this morning brought before Tis Honor, who exacted the fine and costs in such cases provided, and discharged them. The disturbance caused a short interruption to the performance, but order was soon restored .--Credit is due to Mr. Haight, one of Managers of the Circus, for the prompt manner in which he responded to the call of the Mayor for any essistance he might require from his men.

I deem it due to my self to state that it was without my authority, and that I do not belong to that party. I desire all to know, who feel on interest in the matter, and who are not already aware of the fact, that I am a thorough, out and out Union mae, and have always been. cut and made to pay fines and costs, and then MAGISTRATES' OFFICE .- There were no cases at the Magistrates' Office to-day. In the notice of the case, under the Fence Law, in Jesterday's Gazette, we were in error in saying that damages at the amount of $22 were asse-eed; that amount was claimed, but the jusdees only allowed $6. Attention is called to the advertisement of H. Strauss, in the Gazette. He has two ex-Shrive establishments in the city, one at the corner of King and Columbus streets, and the other at 151, King street, where the largest and hest selected stocks can be found, at prices that PRINCE GEORGE'S 'CIRCUIT COURT.-The Special Term of the Prince George's county, Md., Circuit Court adjourned on Saturday night lest, having tried four negroes for murder, one for rape, and eleven negroes and two white men for other criminal offences. The proof in every case was clearly against the parties, and all were found guilty. In the Lyles murder case, the confessions of the parties left no doubt of their guilt. Judge Berry passed sentence of death, in a most impressive manner, upon them late on Saturday afternoon, and Plaiter and Jones showed considerable contrition, but Luckett and Davis received their death sentence without emotion.
